MEDIA RELEASE - IMMEDIATE CIRCULATION - 19 DECEMBER 2023

LGBT+ CATHOLICS WESTMINSTER WELCOME VATICAN SAME-GENDER BLESSINGS MOVE.

The news that Pope Francis has approved blessings for same-gender couples and those in 'irregular relationships' is nothing short of wonderful for those many couples in committed relationships.

The Catholic Church has always been very comfortable to give blessings to a vast range of inanimate objects ranging from homes, offices and vehicles, even machines of war, as well as to beloved pets and other animals. The idea, not to say practice, that a loving and committed same-gender couple could deserve a blessing in their faith and from the Church that they love so much, has been a struggle for the Church for far too long.

LGBT+ Catholics Westminster are delighted to receive this welcoming, Christmas gift from the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith and Pope Francis. Following on the recent announcements about LGBT+ access to, and involvement in, Baptism &

Confirmation celebrations, the Church is taking another small step towards the radical inclusion of LGBT+ people of God, very much in tune with the current Synodal Journey towards October 2024 and beyond. This is a massive step forward in the recognition and acceptance of all who seek a blessing for their loving and committed relationships.
